LEAC Helicopter Searches for Murder Suspect

Updated: Jun 04, 2008 4:35 AM CDT

By Dani Maxwell 13 News ROCKFORD - Rockford police send a helicopter up in the air to search for a murder suspect. The Law Enforcement Aviation Coalition was looking for DeMichael Foat. He's wanted for the murder of Jermaine Malone, who was shot in the head after a car accident on South Central New Year's Day. Police say Foat's parents called them to say their son was in the area. Police haven't found him yet, but are still looking.
